Each BRRC Royalty Contestant must have one sponsor. The sponsor agrees to pay $350 to support the candidate through the Royalty Contest. This is NOT a rodeo sponsorship.

All sponsors will receive the following benefits for their sponsorship:

1. Social Media advertising courtesy of the BRRC. Website advertising on the BRRC page. Please email the logo and/or ad work you'd like used to promote your business to brrcroyalty@gmail.com
2. A sash with your business name will be worn by your contestant throughout the competition and at the BRRC Rodeo leading up to the crowning. sponsor sashes are not worn during judging of horsemanship and personal interview portion of competition.
3. A verbal announcement of your business as a sponsor of the contestant at each night's performance of the July BRRC Rodeo.
4. Two free adult general admission tickets to the Blue Ridge Rodeo for use on either Friday or Saturday night.

Sponsor logos may be emailed to brrcroyalty@gmail.com.

Office use only: Credit Check Cash

The BRRC Royalty Captain in conjunction with the BRRC Board of Directors has pledged to make the pageant memorable for each contestant. The board is confident that the chosen Royalty Captain will represent his/her club and the city of Blue Ridge in a grand manner.

The Blue Ridge Riding Club Queen, Princess, and Sweetheart symbolize the youth of our rodeo, city, club, and those who wish to promote the sport of rodeo, and in so doing, promote the great western way of life. A contestant for Queen, Princess, or Sweetheart possesses a congenial personality, and is knowledgeable of the equine industry, and the sport of professional rodeo.

Eligibility

1. Sweetheart contestants must not be less than 6 years of age or more than 10 years of age as of January 1, 2024.
2. Princess contestants must not be less than 11 years of age and no more than 15 years of age as of January 1, 2024.
3. Queen contestants must not be less than 16 years of age and no more than 19 years of age as of January 1, 2024.
4. Birth certificates may be required as proof of age.
5. Contestants must be a BRRC member in good standing. Can be individual or under a family membership.
6. No person who will be under the age of 18 years on January 1st, the year of the competition, may be a contestant unless his/her parents and/or legal guardian have given their written consent to such participation, agreeing to comply with all of these rules and regulations as they then exist or may hereafter be amended.
7. The Queen and Princess contestant must be able to ride independently and carry a flag.
8. The Sweetheart contestant must be able to ride independently, but is not required to carry a flag. The Sweetheart contestant can choose to carry a flag if they are able to do so.
9. The reigning contestants are not eligible to compete during their reigning year with the exception of the following:
 - The Princess who has turned 16 and is eligible to compete in the Queen contest if she so wishes.
 - The Sweetheart who has turned 11 and is eligible to compete in the Princess contest if she so wishes.
10. A contestant may not have previously held the BRRC royalty position of which they are competing for.

Contestant Requirements

1. Contestants must be a BRRC member in good standing with membership received by April 15, 2024.
2. Leading up to the personal interview and horsemanship competition, and coronation/crowning contestants shall attend all public and private functions connected with the Club, Rodeo, and the Royalty contest as designated by the BRRC Royalty Captain, and shall participate in promotional and other functions to the extent and in the manner requested by BRRC. Failure to attend all required functions without prior approval from the captain will be reviewed by the board and may result in the contestant being disqualified from the competition.
3. Contestants MUST conduct themselves in a sportsmanship-like manner at all times. Any behaviors seen, reported, or observed on social media will be addressed by the board to determine what action if any needs to be taken to address such concerns.
4. Contestants MUST ride in the Rodeo parade, unless specifically excused by the BRRC Royalty Captain. Dress for the parade will be of the contestant's choice but must consist of your sponsor's sash, cowboy hat or helmet, boots, and long sleeve/western shirt, and long pants. The outfit must be neat and tasteful.
5. Contestants MUST ride in the Grand Entry each night of the Rodeo and attend all performances of the Rodeo unless specifically excused by the BRRC Royalty Captain. Contestants may wear clothing of their choice, but must consist of the sponsor's sash, cowboy hat or helmet, boots, long pants, and long-sleeved button-down western shirt. Contestants must wear their sponsor sash throughout the royalty contest and the rodeo.
6. Contestants will be required to be at the rodeo arena at least one hour prior to the performance each night. Contestants will be required to be mounted and located near the West gate and check in with BRRC Royalty Captain for the parade and/or grand entry. All contestants will ride together in the grand entry following the reigning Queen, Princess, and Sweetheart.
7. At all BRRC functions, performances, and events, each contestant shall be dressed in western attire all of which shall be furnished at the sole cost and expense of the contestant and approved by the Royalty Captain.
8. At any event requiring the contestants to be mounted, each contestant shall provide the horse to be used by her, together with all the necessary saddles, bridles, and or other equipment, and at her sole cost and expense, transport the horse to and from the site of the function.
9. Each contestant shall provide her own transportation to each such function, performance, and or event unless otherwise instructed by the BRRC Royalty Captain.
10. BRRC Royalty Captain shall have the sole right to publish or cause the publication in any media, and use in any reasonable manner, the name, basic biographical background, and photographs of each contestant for the purpose of the promotion of the contest.
11. If for any reason a contestant is unable to complete the competition (including a withdrawal, disqualification, or no show at horsemanship judging), all sponsorship and donation funds previously submitted are forfeited. There will be no refunds.

Selection of Contestants

- Point System

- The selection of the contestants in the Royalty Court consists of Queen, Princess, and Sweetheart and will be judged and regulated on a point system in the following categories and point totals:

Obtain Royalty Sponsorship *Required	$350
Obtain Donations	$350	50 points
Total Donations at or over $500	$500	20 points
Rodeo Sponsors	1 pt. per sponsor	5 points
Work Days	2 Work Days (12.5 points per work day attended)	25 points
Personality/ Appearance		25 points
Sales Talk		50 points
Personal Interview		50 points
Horsemanship		50 points
TOTAL POSSIBLE SCORE		275 points

- To calculate the contestants final score:
 - points from donations, donations equal to or over $500, rodeo sponsorship and workdays will be totaled.
 - points from each judge's score sheets will be totaled for each judge then added together and divided by three to create an average judge score.
 - For the final score the donations total and judges average are added together.
 - In the event of a tie the contestants personal interview average score will be used to break the tie. In the event that is a tie then the average sales talk score will be used.

- Judging

- The judging panel will consist of three judges who do not know any of the contestants and/or their families and who are familiar with the rodeo and horse industry. The judging panel is obtained by the BRRC Royalty Captain with board approval and any compensation to the judges is negotiated between the coordinator and judges and paid from the Royalty funds.

- Royalty Sponsorship

- Required for participation

- All contestants must have a business sponsor in order to compete, receive points and awards. The cost of the sponsorship is $350. All sponsorships must be obtained by the published due date and all funds and forms turned in by that date to be eligible to compete and receive prizes.
- All contestants will have an ad on the website, and social media with a picture and biography along with the business name, address, etc. stating that they are the contestant's sponsor. The biography and pictures must be provided to the BRRC Royalty Captain by the published due date.
- The contestant will wear a sash during the parade, rodeo grand entry, and rodeo with the business name of their sponsor. The BRRC Royalty Captain will have all the sashes made for the contestants.
- This is a Royalty sponsorship and is not a Rodeo Sponsorship.
- All sponsors will receive the following benefits for each sponsorship:
 1. Social Media advertising courtesy of the BRRC. Website advertising on the BRRC website.
 2. A sash with their business name worn by their contestant during the competition. sponsor sashes are not worn during judging of horsemanship and personal interview portion of competition.
 3. A verbal announcement of their business as a sponsor of the contestant at each night's performance of the July rodeo.
 4. Two free Adult general admission tickets to the Blue Ridge Rodeo for use on either Friday or Saturday night.

- Donations/Rodeo Sponsorship

- All contestants must obtain a minimum of $350 in donations to support the Royalty Contest.
- If total donations collected are equal to or greater than $500, contestants will receive additional points as published in the point system matrix on page 7 of this rule book.
- These are donations and are not sponsorships.
- It is important that contestants be sure when the donated funds are turned in it is clear the contestant they are on behalf of.
- BRRC is a NonProfit 501(c)3 organization.
- The Rodeo Sponsor points are earned by bringing in a New Rodeo Sponsor who gives at least $500.
- New Rodeo Sponsor is defined as one that was not a sponsor in the previous year.
- New Rodeo Sponsor points are earned as 1 point per new sponsor for a maximum of 5 points.

- WorkDays

- There will be an opportunity to earn extra points by attending work days for a total of 25 points.

- Each work day attended, up to 2, earns 12.5 points each. Attending a work day is spending 3 hours working at the arena.
 - If unable to attend specific workdays, talk to the royalty capitan about oppportunities to work on another day.
 - Be sure to check in when you arrive and let them know you are earning royalty points.
- Personality/Appearance
 - This category will be judged by a panel of judges.
 - The judges will form their opinions during the course of the competition and personal interview.
 - During the horsemanship competition, the contestants will be required to wear black or denim jeans, cowboy boots, a cowboy hat or helmet, a long-sleeved button-down shirt, and a belt. (No rips or tears in jeans.)
 - Your outfit needs to be neat and clean.
 - Your horse should be well groomed as your horse's appearance is also judged.
 - This category will be judged by a panel of judges.
- Sales Talk
 - You must sell the horse that you have with you to a judge.
 - We suggest you bring the registration paper (if you have papers) to help assist you in your sales talk.
 - You may have another youth hold and/or ride your horse for you.
 - Sales talk needs to be 5-10 minutes for the Queen, 3-8 minutes for the Princess, and 2-3 minutes for the Sweetheart. During this time frame, you will want to inform the buyer about your horse for sale while leaving enough time for questions. Time warnings will be given throughout to keep the competitor aware of how much time is left.
 - Preparing for sales talk we suggest you look over the registration papers, make sure you know about the dam and sire of the horse, while also highlighting some of the strengths. Don't be afraid to point out something that you would change about your horse. We strongly suggest practicing sales talk before you get to the BRRC competition.
- Personal Interview
 - This category will be judged by a panel of judges.
 - The interview will be from 5-15 minutes in length for the Queen and Princess. For the Sweetheart, it will be 3-5 minutes. The panel will ask questions about the contestant's history with BRRC, horsemanship, school and community activities, as well as basic rodeo and/or horsemanship facts.

- Horsemanship Pattern #1 (Queen and Princess)

- This category will be judged by the selected panel of judges.
- This pattern is designed for the Queen and Princess contestant. Sweetheart contestants may voluntarily choose this pattern.

1. Enter at position A and walk to position B.
2. Trot to position C and stop.
3. Make a 90 degree turn to the left.
4. Begin two figure 8's starting to the right. The first should be small and slow, the second should be larger and faster.
5. Upon completion of the figure 8's, continue through the center (approximately 3 or 4 strides) and stop at position D.
6. Back up 3 or 4 strides to position E and stop.
7. Walk forward to position F and transition into a trot.
8. Trot to position G.
9. Begin a fast pace at position G, coming to a stop at position H.
10. Turn away from the fence at position H and begin a fast pace at position I, doing a presentation ride waving to the crowd. Complete your presentation ride around the perimeter of the arena to position J. Slow your horse down and return to the entrance gate.
11. Upon return to the entrance gate you will be given a flag. Ride the perimeter of the arena with the flag at a pace of a trot or faster. Return to the entrance gate and exit the arena.

- Horsemanship Pattern #2 (Sweetheart)

- This category will be judged by the selected panel of judges.
- This pattern is designed for the Sweetheart contestant only. Sweetheart contestants may voluntarily choose to ride the Queen/Princess pattern, Horsemanship Pattern #1.

1. Enter at position A and walk to position B.
2. Trot to position C and transition into a slow lope.
3. Slow lope around the arena to position D.
4. At position D, begin a presentation lap, saluting the crowd.
5. Continue to position E.
6. At position E slow your horse down and walk or trot to position F.
7. At position F turn and go into the center of the arena. Stop your horse. You must be able to control your horse in the same position for several minutes until dismissed by the panel of judges or competition assistant.
8. Upon dismissal, turn and return to position A.
9. If you are not able to carry a flag, you may now exit the arena.
10. IF YOU ARE ABLE TO CARRY A FLAG, upon return to position A you will be given a flag. Ride the perimeter of the arena (position G to position H) with the flag at a pace of a trot or faster.
11. At position H, slow your horse down, return to the entrance gate and exit the arena.

Competition

- All contestants will wear a number during the personal interviews and horsemanship competition. All contestants will be known by number, not name. No sponsor sash will be worn during judged competitions.
- At least one week prior to the competition, a rain location will be secured. Therefore, the competition will be held rain or shine.
- All contestants will need to check in by the published time to draw their number. This number will be the order in which they compete.
- All winners will be announced during the Saturday night performance of the July rodeo. No announcements will be made prior to the Saturday night of the rodeo.
- All original scorecards will be kept by the Royalty Captain.

Awards Presented

- The following positions and awards will be considered depending on the number of participants and the amount of funds raised by contestants. Buckles and crowns to be awarded the day the winners are announced, saddles will be awarded at the BRRRC year-end meeting and awards ceremony.
 - Queen - Saddle, Crown and Buckle
 - Princess - Saddle, Crown and Buckle
 - Sweetheart - Saddle, Crown and Buckle

Duties & Expectations of Royalty Court

1. All Royalty Court members must maintain their BRRRC membership in good standing during the entire period of their reign. Reign officially begins the day after crowning and ends upon completion of the last day of the annual rodeo the following year.
2. The Royalty Court is required to ride in the annual rodeo held at the BRRRC arena in July. This includes the parade, opening ceremony, presentation of colors, and sponsor flag runs. When not completing these duties they should find the BRRRC Royalty Captain to see where else they can help, such as welcoming fans or visiting with sponsors. If a royalty court member is not able to attend an event, the member must be given approval by the Royalty Captain.
3. The Royalty Court is required to attend a minimum of 4 Playdays to present the colors during the National Anthem, present sponsor flags, and help during the Playday events as needed. Of those 4 playdays, 2 must be attended between crowning and year end banquet (August, September, October November), and 2 must be attended between year end banquet and rodeo of following year (March, April, May, June). You do not have to participate in the playday and may leave after presenting colors.
4. The Royalty Court will attend and help with the annual BRRRC Award Banquet.
5. The Royalty Court is also expected to represent the BRRRC as a royalty representative (in royalty attire) outside of the BRRRC arena by riding or attending a minimum of 4 events in the local North Texas area throughout the year such as parades, rodeos, jackpots, and other community events. These are events outside of BRRRC that help to spread the mission of BRRRC to promote and foster community unity, horsemanship, civic responsibility, educational excellence, and charitable service for all ages in Blue Ridge and the surrounding North Texas area.

6. Royalty must notify the royalty captain of the event(s) they will be attending (if not required/suggested by the royalty captain) and, when possible, take pictures in royalty attire at the event so we may share on social media, etc.
7. If unable to attend any required/suggested events Royalty Court members should notify the royalty captain ASAP.
8. Anything a title holder has made using the BRRRC royalty title, name or logo must be approved by the royalty captain. This includes chaps, any articles of clothing or other items.
9. Furthermore, the Royalty Court is to conduct themselves in a way that represents the BRRRC positively at all times. Conduct unbecoming will be addressed by the Royalty Captain and is subject to being grounds for removal. All Royalty Court members shall conduct themselves in a way that reflects positively outside of BRRRC events. This conduct includes behavior on social media outlets, other outside events, fundraisers, and or any public appearance where the Royalty Court member has a known affiliation with the BRRRC. Royalty court members will:
 - a. refrain from using profanity and inappropriate language.
 - b. refrain from smoking/vaping, drinking alcohol and/or using illegal substances.
 - c. not become engaged, married or pregnant during the term of title reign.
 - d. not exhibit public displays of affection with a boyfriend or companion of that nature.
 - e. not compete for other rodeo royalty titles during reign without consulting the BRRRC Royalty Captain first.
10. Royalty attire for events is a cowboy hat or helmet, long sleeve/western shirt, jeans, boots, royalty crown, and royalty sash.
11. When flags are presented, the Queen will present the American Flag, Princess will present the Texas Flag, and if the Sweetheart is capable, will carry the BRRRC Flag.
12. Failure of one of the court members to complete their duties may result in the removal of the court member's crown and title and will be passed on to the runner-up.
13. In the event a member of the Royalty Court is unable or does not fulfill their duties as listed above, it must be brought to the attention of the Royalty Captain who will then present the case to the BRRRC Board of Directors. The board will determine whether the runner-up will take over in the reigning position.

Contesting the Royalty Competition

- Any contestant and/or parent wishing to contest the results of the competition must
 - File a written dispute explaining the reason for the dispute with the Board of Directors of BRRRC within 24 hours of the announcement of the winners and/or within 24 hours of the completion of the competition.
 - Include a non-refundable $50 Fee.
- Upon receipt of this written dispute and fee, the Board of Directors will review and hold any necessary meetings, as they deem appropriate. All decisions of the Board of Directors will be FINAL.
